

Each daily workshop is developed for you to be able to learn something spiritual, as well as practical, so that you can apply it to your life. There will be leadership training that you can take home to your church and apply what you have learned within your own church family.

Workshops and seminars

Workshops and seminars will be a time where you can learn something practical, pickup a talent or two, and use it in your ministry at your home church. These are the planned workshops:

Is there freedom in Jesus to be leader?

Daily Training sessions

The Daily training sessions will emphasize the daily topics. They will help you grow in Christ and prepare you to serve God in a new way.
